

An offer that's too good not to Share

Scots College and Queen Margaret College are clearing remaining stocks of the fabulous fundraising cookbook, Share.

With Christmas coming this is a timely reminder that Share, may be the perfect personal or business gift.

Give your friends, family, clients or colleagues a feast for the eyes and the palate. Crammed with nearly 150 proven recipes, the photography is mouth-watering and the production is impeccable. Plus, every book you buy goes to a great cause - the education of our children.

This year we are offering the remaining copies of Share at just $20.00 a copy, or, if you purchase a box of 18 cookbooks you can buy them for $15 a copy! This represents fantastic value for money. So, make a list of all the people you would like to thank with a Xmas gift then secure your copies using the Order Form below.

Bon Appétit!
